

Great and Deep Trust

One autumn day in Juche 101 (2012), officers and men of the Korean People's Army received the order of the respected Comrade Kim Jong Un to renovate the parks in Pyongyang.

At that time they were not fully aware of the intention of the Supreme Commander in seconding the army to building up the bases for the people's cultural and leisure activities.

One day when the construction for laying out the parks was under way,

Kim Jong Un called the commanding officers of the Peoples' Army and said that he let the Peoples' Army shoulder the laying out of the parks together with the improvement of the Hapjang and Pothong rivers so that it could do more for the good of the people, thus clearly demonstrating to the people the nature and appearance of the army that serves the people and strengthening the great unity between the army and the people.

After a while, he emphasized that the great unity is the roots and inherent nature of our society.

Indeed, under his care, the Korean Peoples' Army is wonderfully performing its honorable mission and duty as an artist of people's happiness.
