

Motive Power for a Leap Forward

One day in July several years ago, the respected Comrade Kim Jong Un provided field guidance at a tree nursery in Kangwon Province.

While looking around the enterprise, he spoke highly of the officials of the province for completed the gigantic construction project in a short period and satisfactorily solving in the previous one year the problems arising in management and operation of the nursery, thus laying solid material and technical foundations for the production of saplings and seedlings.

As he was highly appreciating them and working people of the province before mentioning his devotion for the construction of the nursery, the officials were moved deeply.

Saying that the Party Committee of the province, which was always playing the leading role in implementing of the Party's policies, was worthy of being entrusted with tasks and he really wanted to help the officials of the province, who were making strenuous efforts to do even one more task, he had the urgent problems arising in the economic work of the province resolved on the spot.

Continuing that self-reliance and self-sufficiency are the motive power for the development and leap forward of the country, he stressed that the entire Party, upholding this banner, should persist in its struggle as the people of this province had done.

Cherishing his great and deep affection and trust, the officials once again hardened their determination to add lustre to their honor and dignity of being the standard-bearers in implementing the Party's policies, upholding the banner of self-reliance.
