

Taekwon-Do Hall

Located in Chongchun Street in Mangyongdae District, Pyongyang and inaugurated on September 10, 1992, Taekwon-Do Hall is a place for the competition and training of Taekwon-Do.

Covering a total floor space of 7 125.4m² on an area of 17 954.5m², the hall consists of the main building and several subsidiary buildings.

The main building has about 120 rooms including a foyer, competition hall, spectators' seats, training grounds, conference room, lounge, service facilities, office rooms and machine rooms.

The hall fulfils its mission as a base for developing the Taekwon-Do techniques of the country onto a higher level and for disseminating Taekwon-Do techniques. The hall is used as a venue for international and national competitions.